

Lesson Plan:

"Some" vs. "any"

LEVEL Beginner/Low-intermediate (A2/B1)	TIME 45-60 minutes	TOPIC Food/shopping (optional theme)
--	------------------------------	--

Objectives

- Students will understand when to use "some" and "any".
- Students will practice using "some" in affirmative sentences.
- Students will practice using "any" in negative sentences and questions.

Materials

- Flashcards or images of groceries/food
- Worksheets
- Whiteboard/Markers
- Optional: Realia (food items, shopping bag)

Lesson Procedure

1. Warm-Up (5-10 minutes)

Activity: Picture Description or Vocabulary Brainstorm

- Show students pictures of food or shopping scenes.
- Ask: "What can you see?" "What do you buy at the store?"
- Elicit and review vocabulary (e.g., milk, bread, apples).

2. Introduction to Grammar (10-15 minutes)

Explanation: Use a chart or examples on the board:

Sentence Type	Use	Example
Affirmative	some	I have some apples.

Sentence Type	Use	Example
Negative	any	I don't have any milk.
Question	any	Do you have any bananas?

Concept Check Questions:

- Do we use "some" in positive or negative sentences? (Positive)
- Do we use "any" in questions? (Yes)

3. Guided Practice (10-15 minutes)

Activity: Fill in the blank (Worksheet or Board)

- Students complete sentences using "some" or "any":
- I have ___ friends in New York.
- Do you have ___ sugar?
- We don't have ___ eggs.

Pair Check: Students compare answers before class feedback.

4. Communicative Practice (10-15 minutes)

Activity: Role-play - Shopping Dialogue

- One student is a customer, the other is a shop assistant.

A: Do you have any apples?

B: Yes, we have some apples.

A: Great, I'll take some.

Switch roles after a few minutes.

5. Production / Freer Practice (5-10 minutes)

Activity: "Fridge Game" or "Shopping List"

- Students write a list: what they have/don't have at home.
- I have some juice.
- I don't have any cheese.

Then, they ask each other:

- Do you have any tomatoes?

6. Wrap-Up / Review (5 minutes)

- Quick quiz or sentence correction on the board.
- Ask review questions:
- When do we use "some"?
- When do we use "any"?

Homework Suggestion:

- Write 5 sentences using "some" and 5 using "any" about things in their home or shopping list.
