

Lesson Plan:

Adverb clauses

LEVEL	TIME	FOCUS
Upper-intermediate/advanced (B2/C1)	60-90 minutes	Understanding and using different types of adverb clauses in context

Objectives

By the end of the lesson, students will:

- Identify different types of adverb clauses (time, contrast, cause, condition, purpose, result)
- Use adverb clauses accurately in speaking and writing
- Improve sentence variety and cohesion in communication

Materials

- Whiteboard / Slides
- Handout (with examples, fill-in-the-blanks, sentence combining tasks)
- Short video or article for discussion (optional)
- A quiz for review (optional)

Warm-up (10 minutes)

Activity: Sentence Matching

Give students sentence halves:

- "I stayed up late..." / "...although I was exhausted."
- "She studied hard..." / "...so that she could pass the exam."

Ask them to match and discuss what connects them. Introduce the term "adverb clause" and explain that it adds information like time, reason, condition, etc.

Presentation (15 minutes)

Use examples to present 6 types of adverb clauses:

- Time: "After she finished dinner, she went for a walk."
- Cause/Reason: "Because it was raining, we stayed inside."

- Purpose: "He studies hard so that he can win the scholarship."
- Condition: "If you heat ice, it melts."
- Contrast/Concession: "Although he was tired, he kept working."
- Result: "He ran so fast that he broke the record."

Explain subordinators used for each (e.g., although, even though, because, since, if, unless, etc.)

Practice (20 minutes)

A. Controlled Practice (Fill-in-the-blank)

Fill in with appropriate adverb clause subordinators:

1. I didn't go to the meeting ___ I was feeling sick.
2. ___ she practices every day, her piano skills have improved.

B. Sentence Combining

Students combine two sentences using an adverb clause:

"He missed the bus. He woke up late." → "He missed the bus because he woke up late."

Production (20-30 minutes)

A. Speaking: Role-play or Debate

Give students prompts where they must use adverb clauses:

- Plan a trip (use purpose and condition)
- Debate a topic (use contrast and result)

B. Writing Task:

Write a short paragraph (5-7 sentences) using at least 3 different types of adverb clauses.

Example prompt: "Describe a time you faced a challenge and what you learned from it."

Review & Feedback (10 minutes)

Quick Quiz

- Identify the type of adverb clause in a sentence
- Fill in the blank with the correct subordinator

Homework Suggestion:

Write a story using all six types of adverb clauses (1-2 paragraphs). Highlight them.
