

topic: MODALS WITH THE INFINITIVE 2 | level: Beginner

Should there be a "to" in front of the verb?

EX: "I want to play" or "You must play"

REMEMBER: The modal auxiliary verbs are: will/shall, can/could, may/might, must, ought to, would, should.

1. I might _____ to Australia next year.
a) to go b) go
2. She prefers _____ the blue dress.
a) wear b) to wear
3. I can't _____ French.
a) to speak b) speak
4. You shouldn't _____ about him so much.
a) worry b) to worry
5. My brother loves _____ in the shower.
a) to sing b) sing
6. I will _____ a song for you.
a) sing b) to sing
7. My brother doesn't like _____ hard.
a) to work b) work
8. You asked me _____ you a puppy.
a) to buy b) buy
9. You must always _____ your hands before you eat.
a) to wash b) wash
10. I could not _____ my key this morning.
a) to find b) find

topic: MODALS WITH THE INFINITIVE 2 | level: Beginner

ANSWERS:

1) b 2) b 3) b 4) a 5) a 6) a 7) a 8) a 9) b 10) b